Bio

Evan watched all the comic book cartoons of the 90s; The Tick, X-Men, Batman: The Animated Series, Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles, etc.

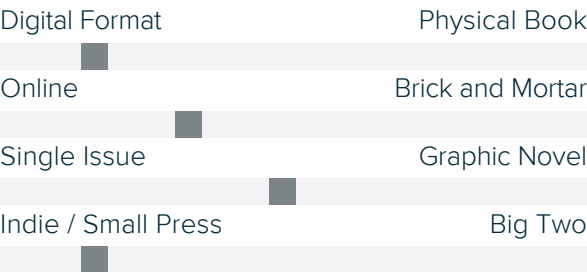

He used to ride his bike down to the comic shop in highschool, collecting Guardians of the Galaxy and X-Men. But like many comics readers he just sort of drifted away and forgot about his old hobby.

When the Guardians of the Galaxy movie came out he was excited to see his old favorites on the silver screen. After seeing the second movie in the franchise Evan decided to get back into comics.
